

North Carolina Forest Service

Suppliers of Bridgemats, Portable Bridges, Dragline Mats and Logging Mats

This is not intended to be a complete list of suppliers. This information has been prepared to assist those who may require this equipment for forestry operations. Potential buyers should compare costs and specifications before ordering a mat to ensure that the equipment fits the job needs. Inclusion on this list does not imply recommendation nor any guarantee by the State of North Carolina related to the purchase or use of these products. Not all vendors listed here offer all types of mats. You should contact each vendor to determine what products they have available for your intended use.
